Privacy Policy

Golden Hour Studios values your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. By signing this agreement, the client acknowledges and agrees to the following terms regarding the collection, use, and safeguarding of personal data:

1. Information Collection:

- We collect necessary personal details, including name, contact information, and session details, to facilitate your photography experience.
- Payment details provided by the client are securely processed and never shared with third parties.
- Any communications or inquiries sent to Golden Hour Studios may be stored for record-keeping and service improvement.

2. Use of Information:

- Personal information is used strictly for booking, communication, and delivering photography services.
- Golden Hour Studios may use images from sessions for portfolio, promotional, or marketing purposes, but only with prior client consent.
- We do not sell, trade, or distribute client information to external parties.

3. Data Protection:

- Golden Hour Studios implements reasonable security measures to protect client data from unauthorized access or misuse.
- While we strive to ensure security, no method of electronic transmission is completely risk-free, and clients acknowledge potential security limitations.

4. Third-Party Services:

- Our website or payment processing services may utilize third-party platforms, which have their own privacy policies. Clients are encouraged to review those policies separately.

Copyright Policy

5. Ownership of Images:

- All images captured by Golden Hour Studios are the intellectual property of the photographer.
- Clients are granted personal usage rights to their images, including printing and sharing with family and friends.
- Commercial use of images, including but not limited to selling or distributing, requires explicit permission from Golden Hour Studios.

6. Unauthorized Use & Reproduction:

- Clients may not edit, alter, or replicate images in a manner that compromises artistic integrity.
- Exact replicas or imitation of another photographer's work will not be accommodated.
- Golden Hour Studios reserves the right to pursue legal action for copyright infringement if images are used beyond agreed-upon terms.
